

Extra Large Robots MXP360L/410X

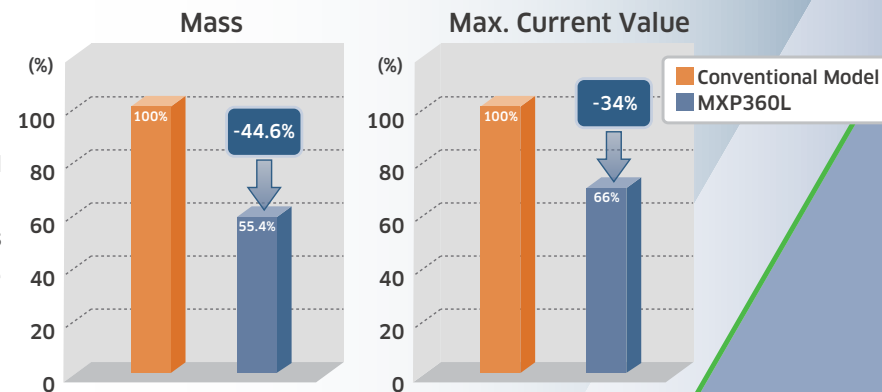

2024

Kawasaki
Ecological Frontiers
S class

Achieved the lightest and energy-saving extra large general-purpose robot in its class.

Weight reduction by material reduction has reduced main body mass by 44.6%. In addition, the maximum current value of the handling operation has been reduced by 34%*by reducing the weight of the arm and latest damping control.

(*Based on comparison between MXP360L and previous our company model)

<MXP360L>

<MXP410X>

Product Description

Extra large general-purpose robots that can be used in a wide range of applications such as handling and assembly of heavy objects

Features

- Advancing the existing MX series
- Compact and wide operating range