Disclosure Based on the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code Update

The Company's disclosure is based on the revised code of June 2021.

(Principle 1-4 Cross-Shareholdings)

To improve capital efficiency, the Company will gradually reduce cross shareholdings after sufficient dialogue with the relevant parties. In addition, the Board of Directors annually reviews the significance of each shareholding and whether the benefits and risks associated with the holding are commensurate with the cost of capital. Voting rights shall be exercised in a manner that leads to the sustainable growth of each respective company and the enhancement of enterprise value from a medium- to long-term perspective. In addition, the Company will oppose proposals that damage shareholder value.

(Principle 1-7 Related Party Transactions)

As a part of the Code of Conduct, the Board of Directors adopted a resolution to the effect that Group officers and employees shall not sacrifice the Company's interests for the benefit of themselves or third parties, and officers and employees are required to comply strictly with this.

In the event of transactions with the Company's officers, major shareholders, or other such parties, the Board of Directors approves such transactions in accordance with the provisions of laws and regulations and the materiality standards set forth in its internal rules, reports on the results, and performs appropriate management of conflicts of interests to prevent any harm to the Company or the common interests of shareholders.

(Supplementary Principle 2.4.1 Ensuring Diversity in the Promotion of Core Human Resources)

The Company believes that it is extremely important to ensure the diversity of its human resources in order to provide innovative solutions in a timely manner to an ever-changing social needs, to continuously improve its enterprise value, and to achieve new growth.

Approach and Voluntary Measurable Goals to Ensure Diversity in Core Human Resources

The Company places importance on creating an organization where employees with diverse perspectives and values can fully demonstrate their abilities and maximize their achievements, and actively and continuously hires and promotes diverse human resources such as women, non-Japanese employees, and mid-career hires with wide-ranging work experience. The Company will endeavor to further strengthen its composition by appointing diverse human resources to at least 20% of the leadership positions at senior manager level and above by 2030.

The Company is currently focusing on the promotion of women's activities and has set goals to double the number of female managerial staff to more than 116 by 2025 from the fiscal 2020 level, increase the ratio of female new graduates to at least 30–40% for administrative career-track positions and 5–15% for engineering career-track positions, and increase the rate of male employees taking childcare leave to 30%.

* To ensure the effectiveness of audits, Directors serving as Audit & Supervisory Committee Members must be familiar with the Company's business or have deep insight and expertise in corporate management, legal affairs, finance and accounting, government and other fields. At least one Director serving as an Audit & Supervisory Committee Member must have sufficient knowledge of finance and accounting.

(Supplementary Principle 3.1.3 Initiatives on Sustainability)

Sustainability Initiatives

The Company discloses its sustainability initiatives through its website, the Kawasaki Report, the Kawasaki Environmental Report, ESG Data Book, and other publications. The Company will continue to enhance disclosure in the future.

Sustainability: <https://global.kawasaki.com/en/corp/sustainability/index.html>

Investments in Human Capital

We believe that appropriate management is necessary to develop human resources who can tackle the challenges of new business areas and produce results that go beyond the boundaries of internal and external organization and products and to motivate organizations in order to maximize results.

Accordingly, in 2021 we launched a personnel system based on the concept of challenge and commitment, which motivates and evaluates human resources who set high targets for themselves and achieve them with determination and speed. We recruit and assign human resources from inside and outside the company who can perform their expected roles and achieve results, without regard for age, gender, nationality, or other attributes, and we are working on suitable assignments based on assessment of behavioral characteristics and development of management levels through training for department and section managers.

We also believe that it is necessary to reinforce development of managers who can lead ongoing business transformation. We select successor candidates by visualizing the skills that managers need, employing external assessments, interviewing the president and vice president, and taking other measures. In addition, we take systematic action to develop managers by conducting manager development courses for a wide range of personnel divided into three different rank-specific programs.

(Supplementary Principle 4.1.1 Overview of the Scope of Delegation to Management)

The Board of Directors makes resolutions on matters related to medium- and long-term management policies and plans, matters related to the appointment, dismissal, and remuneration of officers, and other important investment and financing matters above a certain amount, in addition to the matters stipulated by laws and ordinances and the Articles of Incorporation, and in accordance with internal rules. Decisions on the execution of business operations are made in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation and internal regulations, and authority is appropriately delegated to executive officers appointed by the Board of Directors in order to expedite decision making.

(Principle 4-9 Independence Standards and Requirements for Independent Outside Directors)

The criteria for determining the independence of Outside Directors are resolved and disclosed by the Board of Directors as described in “II. 1. Matters Relating to Independent Directors.”

(Supplementary Principle 4.10.1 Views on the Independence of the Members of Nomination and Compensation Advisory Committees)

The Company has established Nomination and Compensation Advisory Committees independent of the Board of Directors, to ensure objectivity and deliberate the nomination and compensation of Corporate Officers and directors from the perspective of gender diversity and skills. The composition of each committee is determined by resolution of the Board of Directors, and the presiding officer and a majority of the members are Independent Outside Directors to strengthen the independence, objectivity, and accountability of the Board of Directors’ functions related to the nomination (including succession planning) and compensation of Corporate Officers and directors. For details of the composition of the committees, please refer to the corporate governance status section of the Annual Securities Report. Annual Securities Report: <https://www.khi.co.jp/ir/library/financial.html> (Japanese)

(Supplementary Principle 4.11.1 Views on the Balance, Diversity, and Size of the Board of Directors)

Candidates for Director are nominated by the Board of Directors in accordance with its established “Qualifications Expected of Directors.” As the Company has various business segments with different business activities, the Board of Directors appoints internal directors with broad experience as managers of each business and head office function, and Outside Directors with rich experience in corporate management, legal affairs, and public administration, respectively. As a result, the Company has secured a diverse Board of Directors, taken on the whole, with the needed balance of knowledge, experience, and ability as well as gender, race, nationality, and other attributes, as summarized in the following table. The items listed in the skills matrix are based on the definition of the areas of supervision necessary to realize Vision 2030 as “vision, strategic thinking, and governance to increase enterprise value,” “business structure transformation,” and “growth initiatives related to infrastructure development.” To realize Vision 2030, the following areas* designate expectation and experience required of each director.

* An area in which the Board of Directors is expected to use its knowledge and experience to lead discussions.

In addition, the Company appoints one or more Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members and who have appropriate experience, ability and necessary knowledge of finance, accounting and legal affairs, and who have sufficient knowledge of finance and accounting. The current composition of the Board of Directors is disclosed in “II. 2. Matters on Functions of Business Execution, Auditing, Oversight, Nomination and Remuneration Decisions (Overview of Current Corporate Governance System).”

(Supplementary Principle 4.11.2 Status of Concurrent Positions Held by Directors)

The Board of Directors stipulates that if a director of the Company is to serve concurrently as an officer of another listed company, the maximum number of concurrent appointments is limited to three companies excluding the Company. The Company discloses the status of concurrent positions held by each director in the notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders and in the Annual Securities Report.

(Supplementary Principle 4.11.3 Evaluating the Effectiveness of the Board of Directors)

The Board of Directors strives to ensure that its members, including independent Outside Directors, engage in free, vigorous discussion based on their insights and experience and reach appropriate management decisions. As part of these efforts, since fiscal 2015, the Board of Directors annually evaluates and analyzes the effectiveness of its operations.

[Efficacy Evaluation Methods]

The evaluation was conducted via anonymous questionnaire to all directors with the advice and assistance of external experts. The specific evaluation procedure is as follows.

1. Confirm the status of initiatives to address issues identified via the previous evaluation of the Board of Directors and determine evaluation methods to be used, key items to be surveyed and other matters pertaining to the upcoming evaluation.
2. Conduct a survey of all of the members of the Board of Directors.
3. Compile and analyze the survey results for discussion at Board of Directors meetings.
4. Determine issues to be addressed at Board of Directors meetings and policies for countermeasures based on findings from analysis and results of the Board of Directors' discussion.

Items Surveyed

The survey questions (main items) are as follows, with a 5-point scale and free writing section. Also, these questions take into account the changes made in the revision of the Corporate Governance Code while maintaining continuity with previous surveys.

Survey Question Items

- Optimal status of the Board of Directors
- Composition of the Board of Directors
- Operation of the Board of Directors
- Discussions of the Board of Directors
- Monitoring function of the Board of Directors
- Training
- Interactions with shareholders (investors)
- Actions by the respondent
- Audit & Supervisory Committee
- Summary

Evaluation Results and Results of Deliberation by the Board Based on those Results

The analysis of survey results found that the Board of Directors' operations were evaluated highly overall, as was the case in the previous year, and the weighted average values for all questions (excluding the free writing section) were higher than the previous year.

The item with the highest score was that relating to "Enhancing the content of the Board of Directors' discussions regarding medium- to long-term management policies," and many respondents highly evaluated the structure that enables regular deliberation of important issues by the Board. Also, the item with the greatest score improvement was that relating to "Strengthening risk management structures." This was the result of high evaluations of measures to improve systems for reporting to the Board of Directors.

In addition, among the items raised as issues for the Board in the previous fiscal year, "Committing to the fulfillment of the requirements for Director candidates" and "Formalizing leadership succession plans" continued to receive high scores. It is believed that this is the result of steady progress on these firmly establishing processes that were newly introduced.

On the other hand, the item relating to "Strengthening group-wide internal control systems" received the lowest score. As a result, it is desirable that the Company reinforce systems that can oversee and control compliance issues and scandals for the entire group including overseas subsidiaries (for details of specific measures, referred to "Measures to Address Prior Issues").

In light of these results, we will continue to make efforts for improvement.

Please refer to "Initiatives to Further Improve Effectiveness" for details.

As a result of discussions at the Board of Directors meeting based on the results of the above analysis and other factors, the operations of the Board of Directors have been deemed effective.

Measures to Address Prior Issues

The status of initiatives undertaken to address the five issues raised based on the results of last year's survey is as follows.

1. Committing to the fulfillment of the requirements for Director candidates

We elected Directors for the next term in accordance with our policy of enhancing human resources in terms of both diversity of attributes, such as gender, race, and nationality (demographic diversity) and diversity of perspectives and ways of thinking (cognitive diversity). By preparing a skills matrix, a method of selecting human resources that balances business strategies and the Board of Directors is taking root, and we will continue our efforts to recruit human resources appropriate for conditions.

2. Firmly establishing leadership succession plans

We are creating a system by making repeated improvements to the human resource hiring process for selecting the President, Vice President, company presidents, and executive officers and report on the progress to the Board of Directors.

3. Strengthening internal control systems and risk management structures

With regard to confirmation of the status of overseas subsidiaries, which was a concern with the internal control system, we are moving forward with the introduction of hybrid operation of remote audit methods and on-site audits for business audits. Also, the president has taken responsibility and each internal company president as well as the presidents of Kawasaki Railcar Manufacturing and Kawasaki Motors serve as deputies, promoting group-wide quality control and compliance enhancement. Issues identified through monitoring are reported to the Board of Directors as appropriate, and the Board deliberates on measures to prevent reoccurrence.

To strengthen risk management structures, we created a system for regular risk monitoring reports to the Board of Directors, and that system has taken root. Also, we established and put into operation a system that enables immediate reporting of emergency situations to Directors in accordance with established reporting routes and reporting criteria.

4. Securing diversity among core human resources

In accordance with the policy of hiring diverse human resources, including women, foreign nationals, and mid-career personnel with varied work histories in excess of 20% of leaders and professionals who are involved in management on the general manager level and higher by 2030, in fiscal 2022 we conducted mid-career hiring in priority fields, such as the hydrogen business, based on securing human resources in line with our business strategies. We also established a system for actively supporting the empowerment of women by setting a quota for women in executive training with the objective of developing core female human resources internally.

5. Enhancing the content of the Board of Directors' discussions regarding medium- to long-term management policies

In the previous fiscal year, we raised and discussed reinforcing compliance, leadership succession plan, the diversity of the Board of Directors, DX strategies, reinforcing external affairs, business reforms, and financial strategies for raising corporate value as important issues.

Initiatives to Further Improve Effectiveness

Based on the results of this evaluation and the discussions at the Board of Directors meeting, the main issues to be addressed are as follows. We will continue our efforts to further improve the effectiveness of the Board of Directors.

1. Firmly establishing leadership succession plans

The details of initiatives to be undertaken in the future are as follows.

- We will continue to firmly establish succession plan by developing the human resource recruiting system currently being implemented and establishing stable operations.
- We will promote the systemization of training measures for future successor candidates and raise the effectiveness of training and assessments
- We will take action to expand the competencies (behavioral characteristics) needed for management to all officers by thoroughly informing them.
- We will reinforce systems and operations by regularly creating opportunities for information sharing and discussion with members of the Board of Directors.

2. Securing diversity among core human resources

We will investigate mechanisms for developing diverse human resources through succession plans, discuss specific action plans in the Board of Directors, and take action to ensure diversity suited to the Company's management status of business characteristics.

3. Strengthening group-wide internal control systems within quality control

With the objective of reinforcing governance further, this fiscal year we will again position quality as an important management issue, review business processes, foster a quality-first organizational culture, create a system for reporting to the Board of Directors, and reinforce monitoring of internal control system development and operating evaluation results for the entire Group, including subsidiaries.

4. Enhancing the content of the Board of Directors' discussion regarding medium- to long-term management policies

This fiscal year, we will continue to select themes in line with important issues for achieving the Group Vision 2030, conduct deliberations in the Board of Directors, implement set policies on the executive side, and take further measures that will lead to specific action.

Priority Themes That We Plan to Investigate This Fiscal Year

Review of the portfolio, enhancement of human capital, diversity, securing diversity among core human resources, human resource development policies, development of the internal environment, implementation of DX, intellectual property strategies, etc.

(Supplementary Principle 4.14.2 Training Policy for Directors)

The Company provides the following training to Directors according to their respective purposes, based on their expected roles and responsibilities and required qualifications and knowledge. In addition, the Company provides, arranges, and covers the cost of training opportunities required by each Director individually.

Full-Time Directors

- Training to understand the legal responsibilities of the position upon appointment
- External training

Outside Directors

- Explanation of company profile and information at the time of appointment
- Regular briefings for Outside Directors on matters before the Board of Directors and Management Committee
- Participation in key internal committees other than the Board of Directors
- Measures to deepen understanding of the Company's business (participation in various internal events, plant tours, interaction with Corporate Officers, etc.)

All Directors

- Lectures by external experts on social and economic conditions and issues to be addressed by the Company
- Provision of opportunities to participate in various online seminars on legal matters, finance, and other topics

(Principle 5.1 Policy for Constructive Dialogue with Shareholders)

We will actively engage in dialogue with our shareholders to explain our business strategies and management policies, as well as to reflect the knowledge gained through the dialogue in our management, in order to improve our enterprise value over the medium and long term. For this reason, except in unavoidable cases such as scheduling conflicts, appropriate persons such as Directors and Corporate Officers, including the president, will meet with shareholders who request dialogue, depending on their wishes and shareholding ratio. The policy regarding the development of systems and initiatives to promote constructive dialogue with shareholders is as follows.

- The Director in charge of corporate communication oversees dialogue with shareholders, and is actively involved in initiatives such as handling interviews from investors and holding various briefings.
- The internal departments assisting with the dialogue work together to hold regular liaison meetings and provide other support for constructive dialogue.
- Quarterly financial results briefings (including online conferences), business briefings, and tours are held on an ongoing basis.
- The opinions and concerns of shareholders identified through dialogue are reported to the Board of Directors in a timely and appropriate manner.
- In addition to setting up a silent period to limit dialogue with investors prior to the announcement of financial results, we prevent the leakage of insider information by having at least two people present, in principle, for the purpose of mutual monitoring.

Other Matters

• The Company occasionally delegates advisors as persons who have experience as Representative Director and President, etc., and their duties are as follows. However, they are not involved in any decision-making process of management.

(1) To provide advice at the request of the Company based on their experience and knowledge of the Company's management over many years.

(2) Engage in activities in industry groups and business circles and social contribution activities.

• With regard to the system of advisors and counselors, based on the deliberations of the Nomination Advisory Committee, of which the presiding officer and the majority of the members are Outside Directors, the Board of Directors resolved to abolish the advisor system and establish a new special advisor system as of June 25, 2020. The Board of Directors has resolved to abolish the advisor system and establish a new special advisor system as of June 25, 2020. In addition, it was decided not to appoint any new Honorary Advisors.

• The appointment of Special Advisors is decided by the Board of Directors based on the results of deliberations by the Nomination Advisory Committee, and the term of office is one year in principle.

• Special Advisors are paid compensation commensurate with their responsibilities, as they are responsible for important external activities, such as activities in industry organizations and business circles, as well as social contribution activities, including serving as officers and committee members. Honorary Advisors are not paid any remuneration.

2. Matters on Functions of Business Execution, Auditing, Oversight, Nomination and Remuneration Decisions (Overview of Current Corporate Governance System) Update

(1) Overview of the current corporate governance system

KHI is a company with an Audit & Supervisory Committee and has voluntarily established a Nomination Advisory Committee and a Compensation Advisory Committee as advisory bodies to the Board of Directors as well as a Management Committee, an Executive Officers Committee, and other governance bodies. KHI's main deliberative bodies, their details, and the status of the activities are as follows.

The Board of Directors comprises 13 Directors (of whom, five serve as Audit & Supervisory Committee Members), with the addition in June 2023 of one Outside Director who is independent from business execution. As a result, seven of the 13 Directors are Outside Directors (of whom three serve as Audit & Supervisory Committee Members), comprising a majority of the Board. In addition, three of the Directors are women, and two are foreign nationals, providing a balance of knowledge, experience, and skills and enhancing diversity. By avoiding having Directors serve concurrently as officers responsible for specific businesses (the internal company presidents, etc.), the Company seeks to enhance the separation of management oversight and business execution and thereby further reinforce the Board of Director's oversight functions. Chairman of the Board serves as Presiding Officer pursuant to a resolution of the Board.

In addition to deliberating on individual proposals submitted in accordance with the decision-making rules, the Board of Directors also discusses topics set based on the results of evaluations of the effectiveness of the Board. In the fiscal year 2022, the Board examined business reforms, policies to reinforce compliance, succession plans, ensuring the diversity of the Board, DX strategies, and other issues. We also created a system whereby the Board discusses fundamental policies on key management issues, such as sustainability, compliance, risk management, and quality control, and can request reports on the status of these issues from the business execution side.

In addition to the above, the Nomination Advisory Committee and the Compensation Advisory Committee have been established for the purpose of improving the transparency and objectivity of its deliberations. The Nomination Advisory Committee deliberates on the policies and standards regarding the appointment and dismissal of Directors and the appropriateness of such, and the Compensation Advisory Committee deliberates on the policies and systems regarding the compensation of Directors and the appropriateness of the individual compensation, and reports or advises the Board of Directors, respectively.

The Audit & Supervisory Committee comprises five Directors, including three Outside Directors. To secure effective oversight, the two internal Directors have been appointed as full-time Audit & Supervisory Committee Members. To ensure the reliability of financial reports, at least one person with sufficient knowledge of finance and accounting is appointed to the Committee.

KHI has adopted an executive officer system in order to facilitate response to rapid changes in the business environment. To accelerate decision making, a great deal of authority over business execution decisions is delegated to the executive officers, who are appointed by the Board of Directors.

In addition, the Company has established a Management Committee consisting of executive directors and presidents of internal companies, etc., as an advisory body to the President, to deliberate on important matters related to business execution, thereby creating a system that enables more appropriate and efficient decision making and business execution. The Executive Officers Committee, chaired by the president and consisting of all executive officers, has been established. In addition to issuing business execution policies based on decisions made by the Board of Directors, Management Committee, etc., the Committee also exchanges opinions on management issues in an effort to unify decision making in Group management.

For a diagram of our corporate governance system, please refer to the attached "Corporate Governance System Diagram." In accordance with Article 427, Paragraph 1, of the Companies Act and Article 31 of the Articles of Incorporation, Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members and Outside Directors who are not Audit & Supervisory Committee Members have entered into an agreement with the Company that limits their liability to the higher of ¥10 million or the amount stipulated by law (two years' compensation for Directors).

(2) Activities of the Board of Directors

The Company holds monthly meetings of the Board of Directors, and extraordinary meetings of the Board of Directors are held whenever necessary. In addition to legally mandated resolutions, the Board of Directors focuses on medium- and long-term management policies and strategies, medium- and short-term management plans based on these policies and strategies, governance systems appropriate for the Company, and policies for dealing with matters that have a significant impact on management. The following table shows the members of the Board of Directors and their attendance at the Board of Directors meetings held in fiscal 2022.

(4) Compliance Implementation System

The Group considers strict compliance to be the foundation of all business activities and has established a system for compliance. In addition to distributing and disseminating the Kawasaki Group Code of Conduct to all Group employees, we are enhancing education through the use of practical reference materials known as the Compliance Guidebook and e-learning. We have also designated the month of October as "Compliance Month" to raise awareness of compliance throughout the Group by sending out top management messages and including it in the Group newsletter. In addition, we have established a Compliance Reporting and Consultation System, which provides a contact point for outside attorneys, so that employees can consult with them in confidence. Furthermore, in order to deploy appropriate compliance activities across the entire Group in a timely manner, we are committed to promoting measures for improving communication with local sites, and these include: 1. having the General Manager of the Compliance Department of Business Segment concurrently serve in the Head Office Compliance Department, and 2. having Head Office Compliance Department members participate in our regular meetings with overseas sites.

3. Reasons for Adoption of Current Corporate Governance System

The Company is continuously working to strengthen its corporate governance system with the aim of achieving sustainable growth and enhancing enterprise value over the medium to long term. The Company has chosen to establish the Audit & Supervisory Committee as a structure that can respond quickly and flexibly to rapid changes in the business environment and simultaneously further strengthen the oversight function of the Board of Directors.

Under the system of a company with Audit & Supervisory Committee, a considerable part of the authority to make decisions on business execution is transferred to the executive officers appointed by the Board of Directors to realize flexible decision making. The Company has adopted this as an appropriate system for conducting flexible and efficient management while ensuring management transparency by increasing the ratio of Outside Directors in the Board of Directors.

IV Matters Related to the Internal Control System

1. Basic Views on Internal Control System and the Progress of System Development Update

< Basic Internal Control System Policy >

The Kawasaki Group has established an appropriate organization, developed internal rules and regulations, communicated information, and executed business appropriately in order to realize its management philosophy of “Kawasaki, working as one for the good of the planet,” as set forth in the Group Mission (mission and role to be fulfilled), Kawasaki Values, Kawasaki Group Management

Principles, and Kawasaki Group Action Guidelines. In addition, by continuously reviewing and improving the internal control system, the Company will further strengthen the efficient and legitimate corporate system that contributes to the sound and sustainable growth of the Group. Based on the above, the Company has established an internal control system as follows.

a. Systems to Ensure the Appropriateness of the Company's Operations

1. Systems for ensuring that the execution of duties by Directors and employees complies with laws and regulations and the Articles of Incorporation (Article 399-13, Paragraph 1, Item 1 (c) of the Companies Act; Article 110-4, Paragraph 2, Item 4 of the Enforcement Regulations of the Companies Act):

- The Company shall establish and disseminate the Kawasaki Group Code of Conduct (the "Code of Conduct"), which shall serve as the basis for the ethical standards on which Directors, executive officers, and employees shall base their decisions.
- In order to achieve the objectives of effectiveness and efficiency of business operations, reliability of financial reporting, compliance with laws and regulations, preservation of assets, and to ensure the appropriateness of business operations, the Company shall establish an internal control promotion system with the President as the Chief Internal Control Officer and each internal company presidents, the President of Kawasaki Railcar Manufacturing Co., Ltd. (Kawasaki Railcar Manufacturing), and the President of Kawasaki Motors, Ltd. (Kawasaki Motors) as the persons responsible for internal control, and shall operate the internal control system in a unified manner based on the roles and responsibilities of the Directors, executive officers, and employees.
- The Company shall establish a Company-wide Compliance Committee to deliberate and decide on various measures to ensure compliance with the Code of Conduct, various laws and regulations, and the Company's rules and regulations, and to monitor the operation of such committees. In addition, the Company shall establish a department in the Head Office, each internal company, Kawasaki Railcar Manufacturing, and Kawasaki Motors to promote compliance, and shall continuously conduct enlightenment and educational activities regarding compliance with the Code of Conduct, various laws and regulations, and the Company's rules and regulations, in order to raise understanding and awareness of compliance.
- The Company shall strengthen the compliance system by developing and enhancing a system that allows employees to report information on compliance violations.
- While delegating the execution of business to the executive officers appointed by the Board of Directors to an appropriate extent, the appointment of Outside Directors, who are independent officers as defined by the rules of the Tokyo Stock Exchange and who do not pose a risk of conflict of interest with general shareholders, will strengthen the oversight function of the Board of Directors with respect to overall management.
- The Internal Auditing Department ensures the appropriateness of operations and the reliability of financial reporting by auditing the Company's operations and evaluating and reporting on internal control over financial reporting.

2. Systems for retaining and managing information pertaining to the Directors' execution of their duties (Article 110-4, Paragraph 2, Item 1 of the Enforcement Regulations of the Companies Act):

- Information related to the execution of duties by Directors (minutes, records of decisions and their accompanying materials, accounting books and vouchers, and other information) shall be properly stored and managed in accordance with the Company's regulations. Directors, executive officers appointed by the Directors, and employees shall have access to such information at any time.

- Confidential information and personal information shall be appropriately stored and managed in accordance with company rules, and the effectiveness of such storage and management shall be ensured through business audits and other means.

3. Rules and other systems pertaining to the management of risk of loss (Article 110-4, Paragraph 2, Item 2 of the Enforcement Regulations of the Companies Act):

- To appropriately deal with various risks, the Company shall establish management methods and management arrangements in accordance with the type of risk, a system for uniformly monitoring the effectiveness and efficiency of each management arrangement, and a system for reporting important matters to the Board of Directors. Through their operation, the Company shall manage risks in an individual and integrated manner.

- To prepare for the emergence of risks, the Company shall establish Conduct Guidelines for emergency situations in advance, appoint a Crisis Management Officer at each business site, and establish a system to minimize losses.

- When a serious risk becomes apparent, it should be promptly reported to the president, who is the Chief Crisis Management Officer, based on the predetermined reporting route.

- In preparation for the occurrence of a large-scale earthquake, pandemic, or other disaster, the Company shall identify in advance the important operations to be continued or restored on a priority basis and establish a business continuity plan to minimize the impact on the Company's business and shorten the time required for restoration.

4. Systems for ensuring the efficient execution of the Directors' duties (Article 110-4, Paragraph 2, Item 3 of the Enforcement Regulations of the Companies Act):

- Based on the significance of the existence and role of the corporate group consisting of the Company and its subsidiaries ("the Group") as clarified in the Kawasaki Group Mission Statement, establish a long-term vision for the Group as a whole and share the goals to be achieved in the future.

- In order to realize the long-term vision, based on the management policy determined by the Board of Directors, the business execution departments will incorporate the policy into a concrete management plan, and each organization, executive officer and employee will set and implement their own goals to achieve the plan. In addition, the Board of Directors periodically receives reports on the progress of the management plan and supervises the execution of business.

- The Company shall appoint executive officers based on the resolution of the Board of Directors, determine their responsibilities, and clarify the business execution system by determining the division of duties of each organization in accordance with the Company's regulations. In addition, the Company will improve the efficiency of the execution of duties by the Directors by stipulating the authority for decision-making in the corporate rules and delegating authority to the executive officers to an appropriate extent.

- When exercising the authority delegated to the president in the corporate rules, the Management Committee, which is established as the advisory body to the President, shall deliberate on the matter depending on the importance of the authority, thereby ensuring the appropriateness and efficiency of business execution. In addition, an Executive Officers Committee has been established as a forum for the dissemination of management policies and plans to the executive officers and for the exchange of opinions, etc., in order to align the management of the KHI Group.

- In accordance with the corporate regulations, each internal company, Kawasaki Railcar Manufacturing, and Kawasaki Motors shall make its own decisions under the authority and responsibility delegated to it, and shall conduct flexible business operations that adapt to changes in the business environment. In addition, each internal company, Kawasaki Railcar Manufacturing, and Kawasaki Motors will establish a management committee headed by the president of the internal company, the President of Kawasaki Railcar Manufacturing, and the President of Kawasaki Motors, who will be ultimately responsible for the execution of the business.

b. Systems necessary to ensure the appropriateness of the Group's business operations: The Company shall strive to develop the following systems in accordance with the nature, scale, region, and importance of each subsidiary's business to ensure the appropriateness of the Group's business operations.

1. Systems to ensure that the execution of duties by directors and employees of subsidiaries complies with laws and regulations and the Articles of Incorporation (Article 110-4, Paragraph 2, Item 5 (d) of the Enforcement Regulations of the Companies Act):

- From its standpoint as the parent company, the Company shall oversee the internal control of subsidiaries and establish a system to ensure that the Group as a whole achieves its objectives, such as the effectiveness and efficiency of business, reliability of financial reporting, compliance with laws and regulations, and preservation of assets, as well as the appropriateness of business. The Company also shall supervise and guide this system's operation.

- The Company-wide Compliance Committee shall deliberate and decide on policies and various measures concerning the Code of Conduct and compliance for the entire Group. In addition, the relevant divisions of the Head Office that manage the subsidiaries, each internal company, Kawasaki Railcar Manufacturing, and Kawasaki Motors shall collaborate to monitor the operation status of the subsidiaries.

- The Company, as a shareholder of subsidiaries, shall exercise control through the exercise of voting rights at each the subsidiary's General Meeting of Shareholders, and shall supervise and monitor the management of the subsidiary by dispatching to the subsidiary, as appropriate, part-time directors or part-time Audit & Supervisory Members, or both ("part-time officers") who are not themselves engaged in the execution of the subsidiary's business. In addition, the Company shall establish rules such as rules for making final decisions related to the management of subsidiaries and develop a system to manage appropriate group management. The Company's Internal Auditing Department ensures the appropriateness of operations and the reliability of financial reporting by auditing the operations of subsidiaries and conducting assessments of internal control over financial reporting.

2. System for reporting to the Company on matters related to the execution of duties by directors of subsidiaries (Article 110-4, Paragraph 2, Item 5 (a) of the Enforcement Regulations of the Companies Act):

- The Company shall receive reports on the status of execution of duties by directors of subsidiaries through part-time officers dispatched to the subsidiaries.

- Subsidiaries shall periodically report their management status to the Company in the form of management reports and, in accordance with the Company's regulations, shall consult in advance with the Company's departments in charge regarding important management decision-making matters.

3. Rules and other systems for managing the risk of loss of subsidiaries (Article 110-4, Paragraph 2, Item 5 (b) of the Enforcement Regulations of the Companies Act):

- The Company shall establish a risk management system for the entire Group and strive to avoid and minimize risks or losses caused by risks.

- The Company shall instruct each subsidiary to formulate a policy for dealing with crises and to establish a system for crisis management in preparation for the emergence of risks in the subsidiary.
- When a serious risk becomes apparent, it shall be promptly reported to the Company in accordance with the predetermined reporting route.

4. System to ensure that the execution of duties by directors of subsidiaries is carried out efficiently (Article 110-4, Paragraph 2, Item 5 (c) of the Enforcement Regulations of the Companies Act):

- While respecting the autonomy of the management of each company of the Group, the Company shall share the basic ideas and visions expressed in the Kawasaki Group Mission Statement, long-term vision and management plan, etc., and shall establish a system for appropriate and efficient business execution by clarifying the goals of the Group as a whole.
- The Company shall ensure that its subsidiaries maintain decision-making standards to improve the efficiency of business execution.

c. Matters Necessary for the Execution of the Duties of the Company's Audit & Supervisory Committee

1. Matters concerning employees to assist the duties of the Audit Committee (Article 110-4, Paragraph 1, Item 1 of the Ordinance for Enforcement of the Companies Act): Necessary full-time employees shall be assigned at the request of the Audit Committee.

2. Matters concerning the independence of employees who are to assist the Audit & Supervisory Committee from the Directors (excluding Audit & Supervisory Committee Members), and matters concerning the effectiveness of instructions given by the Audit & Supervisory Committee to employees who are to assist the Audit & Supervisory Committee (Article 110-4, Paragraph 1, Items 2 and 3 of the Enforcement Regulations of the Companies Act): Employees who are to assist the Audit & Supervisory Committee in its duties shall be subject to the direction and orders of the Audit & Supervisory Committee, and the prior consent of the Audit & Supervisory Committee shall be required for any personnel transfer, performance evaluation, and disciplinary action.

3. Systems for reporting to the Audit & Supervisory Committee by Directors (excluding Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) and employees, and systems for reporting to the Audit & Supervisory Committee of the Company's subsidiaries by the Directors, Audit & Supervisory Board Members and employees of the subsidiaries, or persons receiving reports from these persons (Article 110-4, Paragraph 1, Item 4 of the Enforcement Regulations of the Companies Act):

- The Audit & Supervisory Committee Members shall attend the internal committees of the Company, including the Board of Directors, Management Committee, Executive Officers Committee, Sustainability Committee, and the Company-wide Compliance Committee. Through these meetings, the Company's directors (excluding Audit & Supervisory Committee Members), executive officers and employees are informed of important matters concerning the Group's management and business operations, including matters related to compliance, risk management, and internal control, as well as the status of the execution of their duties.
- The Company's directors, executive officers, and employees shall immediately report to the Company's Audit & Supervisory Committee when they discover any facts that may cause significant damage to the Group.
- In the event that any Director, Audit & Supervisory Committee Member, or employee of a subsidiary discovers any fact that may cause significant damage to the Group, such fact shall be immediately reported to the relevant department of the Company. Upon receipt of such report, the relevant department of the Company shall report the contents to the Audit & Supervisory Committee.

- In accordance with the corporate rules, the Company's executive officers and employees shall report to the Audit & Supervisory Committee on the execution of the Group's business through internal circulars.
- The Company's Internal Auditing Department and independent auditors shall, on a timely basis, report to the Audit & Supervisory Committee on the status of audits of the Group and exchange information.

4. System to ensure that a person who has made a report as described in 3. above is not treated disadvantageously for having made such a report (Article 110-4, Paragraph 1, Item 5 of the Enforcement Regulations of the Companies Act):

The Company stipulates in its corporate rules the prohibition of unfair or disadvantageous treatment of those who have made reports as described in 3. above, and shall have its subsidiaries stipulate the same in their corporate rules.

5. Matters concerning the procedures for prepayment or reimbursement of expenses incurred in the execution of duties by Audit & Supervisory Committee Members (limited to those related to the execution of duties by the Audit & Supervisory Committee) and other policies concerning the treatment of expenses or liabilities incurred in the execution of such duties (Article 110-4, Paragraph 1, Item 6 of the Enforcement Regulations of the Companies Act):

In the event that an Audit & Supervisory Committee Member makes a request to the Company for advance payment of expenses, etc. pursuant to the Companies Act in connection with the execution of duties (limited to those relating to the execution of the Audit & Supervisory Committee's duties), the Company shall promptly dispose of such expenses or liabilities unless the expenses or liabilities relating to such request are deemed to be unnecessary for the execution of the Audit & Supervisory Committee Member's duties.

6. Other systems to ensure that audits by the Audit & Supervisory Committee are conducted effectively (Article 110-4, Paragraph 1, Item 7 of the Enforcement Regulations of the Companies Act):

- Directors and Audit & Supervisory Committee Members shall exchange information and opinions on a regular basis in order to promote mutual communication. In addition, Audit & Supervisory Committee Members shall attend important meetings such as those of the Board of Directors and the Management Committee to express their opinions directly regarding the execution of duties by Directors (excluding Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) and executive officers.
- The Directors of the Company and its subsidiaries shall cooperate in establishing a system that enables the Audit & Supervisory Committee of the Company to conduct more effective and efficient audits through cooperation with the Internal Auditing Department of the Company and the Audit & Supervisory Members of the subsidiaries.
- From the perspective of ensuring efficiency and independence in the execution of duties by the Company's Internal Auditing Department, any transfer, evaluation, and disciplinary punishment of the head of auditing shall be carried out with the prior agreement of the Audit & Supervisory Committee.
- The Company and its subsidiaries shall obtain the consent of the Audit Committee or the auditors of the relevant company or the decision of the auditors of the relevant company, in accordance with laws and ordinances and the Articles of Incorporation, with respect to proposals for the appointment of auditors of the relevant company and the compensation of such auditors.
- The Audit & Supervisory Committee Members appointed by the Company shall be persons with appropriate experience and competence and the necessary knowledge relating to finance, accounting, and legal affairs; in particular, they should include at least one person with sufficient knowledge of finance and accounting.

2. Basic Views on Eliminating Anti-Social Forces

The Group resolutely rejects any unreasonable demands from anti-social forces, and specifies in the “Code of Conduct” that it shall not have any relations with anti-social forces and shall ensure that all Directors, Executive Officers, and employees are thoroughly aware of the matters contained in it. Furthermore, with respect to internal systems, the Company has established a department in the headquarters which is responsible for overseeing handling of expulsion of anti-social forces, established close cooperation with external specialized organizations such as the police force, and in collaboration with the concerned departments, the Company systematically handles unreasonable requests from anti-social forces.
